Dear Brother Chalk:

Your note to Brother Mosley has been referred to me. It has not been our policy to send the Advocate complimentary to all our staff writers; but rather to pay them $5 an article and give them a bound volume each year. I do not know of another paper among us that pays for staff articles.

That was a fine letter you wrote me on leaving Cookeville. In recent months, I have been through the Gate City of the Upper Cumberland Country several times in recent months. It seems a bit lonesome that you and family are not there.

I saw Judge Mitchell at Judge Hunt's funeral in Livingston a few weeks ago. He was as fine as ever. Had a letter from Mrs Mitchell this week. I got a much-desired book for her and the Judge.

Cliett, Sara and family are well. Nancy spent the morning in the office with me.

I am still looking for some articles from you.

Give my regards to Sue and the children.

Cordially and fraternally,

P. S. I am sending you about ten back Advocates and having it sent to you 16 months for the $4.
